6. *(Executive Session) – Discussion on Political Climate and Agency Response to Mitigate Financial Risk

Overview:

In light of the recent federal actions, including the Executive Order issued by the White House on January 28, there has been significant uncertainty regarding the continuation of federal grant funding. As a result, Community Services, Inc. (CSI) has proactively taken steps to mitigate potential financial risks while ensuring that essential services remain intact. This discussion will address the immediate actions taken and the ongoing efforts to stabilize the agency's financial position.

Key Discussion Points:

1. Overview of Federal Executive Order & Potential Funding Impacts
 - Summary of the Executive Order issued on January 28 and its implications on CSI funding streams
 - Current status of federal and state funding commitments and future uncertainty
2. Actions Taken by CSI to Mitigate Financial Risk
 - Temporary reduction of services and furloughs as precautionary measures to manage financial exposure
 - Engagement with funders and regulatory agencies (TXDOT, TDHCA, etc.) to clarify funding status
 - Updates on reimbursement requests and CSI's fiscal operations
3. Community & Stakeholder Response
 - Advocacy from local constituents and clients prompting immediate follow-up with TXDOT leadership
