COUNTY OF NAVARRO

ORDER TO DESIGNATE HAZARD PAY FOR SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT AND ROAD & BRIDGE PERSONNEL DURING DISASTER DECLARATION

WHEREAS, on April 8th, 2020 Navarro County Judge HM Davenport signed a Declaration of a Local Disaster Related to COVID-19 pursuant to §418.108(a) of the Texas Government Code; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 virus is contagious and spreads through person-to-person contact, especially in group settings; and

WHEREAS, an emerging public health emergency does currently exist and is expected to worsen;

BE IT THEREFORE ORDERED BY THE COUNTY JUDGE OF NAVARRO COUNTY:

Effective April 24, 2020, Sheriff's Department and Road & Bridge personnel required to continue working during this time will be compensated at their regular hourly rate of pay + $5.00 per hour for hours actually worked; and an appropriate over-time rate (if applicable) to the extent hours actually worked exceed overtime thresholds. This includes both full-time and part-time employees, exempt and non-exempt.

On termination of this order, personnel affected by this order will resume providing services at pay rates and under such policies as existed prior to this order.

This order may be modified as determined necessary. Any such modifications will be done in accordance with the disaster declaration and authority conferred thereunder by law on the County Judge.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I affix my signature this 24 day of April, 2020.

ORDER OF NAVARRO COUNTY JUDGE
DISASTER DECLARATION/COVID-19
EASING OF RESTRICTIONS

00003302

April 21, 2020

Whereas, In the past week Governor Greg Abbott indicated in his address, and his Executive order, that certain changes in the restrictions on retail sales will take effect Friday, April 24, 2020 at 12:01 am and,

Whereas, The Navarro County Judge H. M. Davenport, Jr. does hereby modify restrictions on the Declaration of a Local State of Disaster approved by Navarro Commissioners Court on April 13, 2020 to reflect the changes indicated in the Governor's Executive Order.

Therefore, Beginning on Friday, April 24, 2020, at 12:01 a.m., retail business establishments can operate on a "Retail to Go" platform. This means that transactions can occur with point of sale and merchandise delivery using curbside pick-up, home delivery, or delivery by mail in strict compliance with the terms required by the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS). DSHS requirements may be found at www.dshs.texas.gov/coronavirus.

The list below provides guidance for Employers, Employees, and Customers of Reopened Retail Services. Stores may not be open to the public.

Businesses are encouraged to utilize online and electronic payment methods and avoid any face-to-face interactions with customers. Methods of delivery or pick-up should be instituted to limit contact with the customer. If contact with the customer is unavoidable then masks should be worn by both seller and customer, and hand-washing and appropriate decontamination efforts should follow. Social distancing should continue to be followed in as much as is possible!

Everyone should to take personal responsibility to take the appropriate precautions to sufficiently protect yourself and others. Citizens should limit personal contact and use personal protective equipment, such as masks, as much as possible.

Businesses that may operate on a "Retail to Go" platform include:

- Florists
