Default has occurred in the payment and in the performance of the obligations of the Contract for Deed. Because of that default, Singing Properties, the Seller under the Contract for Deed, has requested Substitute Trustee to sell the Property.

The Contract for Deed may encumber both real and personal property. Formal notice is hereby given of Singing Properties' election to proceed against and sell both the real property and any personal property described in the Contract for Deed in accordance with Singing Properties' rights and remedies under the Contract for Deed and section 9.604(a) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

Therefore, notice is given that on and at the Date, Time, and Place for the Foreclosure Sale described above, Substitute Trustees will sell the Property in accordance with the Terms of Sale described above, the Contract for Deed, and applicable Texas law.

If Singing Properties passes the Foreclosure Sale, notice of the date of any rescheduled foreclosure sale will be reposted and refiled in accordance with the posting and filing requirements of the Contract for Deed and the Texas Property Code.

The Foreclosure Sale will be made expressly subject to any title matters set forth in the Contract for Deed, but prospective bidders are reminded that by law the Foreclosure Sale will necessarily be made subject to all prior matters of record affecting the Property, if any, to the extent that they remain in force and effect and have not been subordinated to the Contract for Deed. For the avoidance of doubt, the Foreclosure Sale will not cover any part of the Property that has been released of public record from the lien and/or security interest of the Contract for Deed by Singing Properties. Prospective bidders are strongly urged to examine the applicable property records to determine the nature and extent of such matters, if any.

Pursuant to section 51.009 of the Texas Property Code, the Property will be sold "AS IS," without any expressed or implied warranties, except as to the warranties (if any) provided for under the Contract for Deed. Prospective bidders are advised to conduct an independent investigation of the nature and physical condition of the Property.

Pursuant to section 51.0075(a) of the Texas Property Code, Substitute Trustees reserve the right to set further reasonable conditions for conducting the Foreclosure Sale. Any such further conditions shall be announced before bidding is opened for the first sale of the day held by Substitute Trustees.
